

Bronchoscopy: (diagnostic and therapeutic)

It is a procedure used to look inside the lungs' airways; also sampling required for diagnosing the type of respiratory diseases is possible through this procedure.